

The story of the former Masaryk's Home in Prague documents the progress in social and health care in Czechoslovakia.

Three medallions acquaint the reader with personalities closely connected with the fate of Masaryk's Homes: those of President Thomas G. Masaryk (1850 - 1937), prof. J. Thomayer (1853 - 1927) and Ing. Arch. Dr. Bohumír Kozák (1885 - 1978).
