

Abstract

SECURITY AND SAFETY ON FOOTBALL STADIUMS

This thesis deals with the safety of the Czech firstleague stadiums. The theoretical part describes how security was ensured in the history of Czech Football League and also defines main manifestations of hooliganism during matches in this league. It also includes faces of aggression of football fan.

The main purpose of this thesis is to describe the organization of safety and security in Czech football today. Especially it tries to determine a suitable model according to which one could achieve sufficient security of football matches in the most effective and appropriate manner.

Keywords:

Security, Football, Stadium, Violence and Aggression, Audience