

This diploma thesis "Incomplete Family, Substitutional Family Care" deals with problems of incomplete family in context with aspects of substitutional families. The first chapter deals with family evolution. It describes selection of future partner and with classifying of families in other hand. It takes the focus on problem families and his characteristics at the finish of the chapter.