

This report tries to afford the comment to particulars of historical phenomenon heresy in medieval Bosnia, which we find as the main points for definition of confessional identity of o-called Bosnian "krstjans". Before anything else it's the question of the origin of occurrence of heresy in this state, next very important points are circumstances of rise the independent, Bosnian church, character of church establishment and base of doctrine.