

ABSTRACT

Introduction

Nutrition significantly affect health at the general population as well as at drug users. Contact centers offers food service and they can improve quality of drug users life.

Objective

The aim is to explore food giving at contact cener SANANIM and find why was changed rules about concerning food service.

Methods and sample

Sample creates 20 clients and 7 employers of contact center, 5 employers of charity and charitable organizations. Interwiev and observation was used for facts obtaining.

Results

I have found periods of food giving at contact center. It is dividing to 3 periods. Hygienic norm, capacitance reasons, financial reasons and moving of object standing for changing rules.

Resume

I thing that the right chosen nutritional therapy can poztive affect drug users life. Nutrition mening pursue at follow-up treatment. I recommend to expand research and find congruent impart to other contact centers about relevance nutrition aspect.

Keywords

food giving – nutrition – contact center – case study – SANANIM