

Abstract

This work is about integration of Roma minority to the czech society during the period of normalization in Českolipsko, especially what was the contribution of Czech Women Association – organization established by the National Front of Czechs and Slovaks. This work is based on analysis of primary sources from archive in Česká Lípa from the fund called OV ČSSŘ Česká Lípa – Care of Gypsy Population.