

This final assignment is focused on the description of the election and the initiation of the shaman in the Siberia. Starts with the defining of the term shaman and shamanism, than describes the Siberian territory and introduces chosen ethnics. Generally characterizes the election and the Initiation process of the Siberian shaman. These general characteristics are completed with the concrete examples of chosen ethnics. For more complex view of the shamanism, there is description of the healing ritual, again completed with the concrete examples.